Narrative and character driven lyrics, full of yearning, misgivings and unfortunate down-and-outs. Part of Berlin’s thriving “Dark Folk” scene, the Irishman uses poetic phrasing, wit, macabre stories, and melodic delivery for an unforgettable, unique performance with collaborators from all over the world.

He quietly released his debut EP in April, 2017 in Berlin, followed by an Irish tour that same year, and European Tour in 2018. Recently joining forces with newly established Famous Gold Watch Records, Berlin, Kilkelly has played Galway Fringe, Sligo Live as well as a headlining show at Liverpool Irish Festival in 2019.

Kilkelly’s much anticipated debut concept album “The Prick & The Petal” was released as an art book in collaboration with artist Stephanie Hannon in September, 2019. The album was released digitally on all platforms on the 25th of December.
